Dear Parent / Caregiver,

The Jilliby Public School is having an Australian author visit our school to promote reading and her book. Davina Bell is a current author and we will be celebrating her new book “All The Ways to be Smart”. This book is a radiant celebration of the many different talents children can have. It is the third release from Australian duo Davina Bell and Allison Colpoys. This book is an absolute joy to pore over and is a great book for nurturing a child’s confidence, and those who feel different from their friends will be reassured by the book’s varied descriptions of what makes someone smart.
